RE: EXPRESSION OF INTEREST FOR PINES COUNTRY CLUB (PONDS) SUBS. PROJECT IN MONONGALIA COUNTY, WV

Dear Committee Members

WHM Consulting, Inc. (WHM) has assembled a well qualified team to address the need to replace the irrigation pond at the Pines Country Club. We are pleased to present our qualifications in response to the Expression of Interest 14622 issued by the WVDEP. We are confident that we can fully respond to the various tasks and disciplines required to make this project successful.

As the lead project consultant, WHM brings years of engineering design, permitting and construction experience. WHM personnel have experience in impoundments, mining, and golf course irrigation.

As a sister company Blazosky Associates Inc, provides similar qualifications. In addition, BAI adds the geologic and pump station expertise required for the project.

The West Virginia firm of LA Gates Company brings the field presence for the survey, permitting and local coordination.

Novel Geo-Environmental LLC a woman owned business, will provide the soil and geotechnical expertise for the project.

Together, the team is well organized to clearly define individual responsibilities while retaining redundancy in all practice areas if necessary. In this manner, the expertise of all of these firms adds significant project value and results in a cost effective project.

We invite your questions and are certainly able to provide more detail on our qualifications and organizational plans to successfully manage your project. We appreciate your consideration of our expert team.

Sincerely
WHM Consulting, Inc.

John J. Blazosky, P.E.
President
