PURCHASING AFFIDAVIT

West Virginia Code §5A-9-10a states: No contract or renewal of any contract may be awarded by the state or any of its political subdivisions to any vendor or prospective vendor when the vendor or prospective vendor or a related party to the vendor or prospective vendor is a debtor and the debt owed is an amount greater than one thousand dollars in the aggregate.

DEFINITIONS:

"Debt" means any assessment, premium, penalty, fine, tax or other amount of money owed to the state or any of its political subdivisions because of a judgment, fine, permit violation, license assessment, defaulted workers' compensation premium, penalty or other assessment presently delinquent or due and required to be paid to the state or any of its political subdivisions, including any interest or additional penalties accrued thereon.

"Debtor" means any individual, corporation, partnership, association, limited liability company or any other form or business association owing a debt to the state or any of its political subdivisions. RE: Exempt ID #WCEX16916

Dear Employer,

Your request for exemption from coverage for West Virginia Workers' Compensation insurance has been received and processed.

According to your application; you own the equipment used in your job duties, control your own work schedule, are not supervised by anyone, have no employees at the present time, do not expect to have any employees in the near future and you have elected out of coverage as either a sole proprietor, partner in a partnership, or officer of a corporation or an association. Therefore, based on the information provided, you are in compliance with West Virginia Workers' Compensation laws and rules and are exempted from the requirement to maintain West Virginia workers' compensation coverage. If any of the above underlined information is incorrect, this exemption is not valid.

This exemption for Alan E. Long is valid until December 7, 2012 or until circumstances change which require you to maintain workers' compensation coverage, such as hiring employees or a business re-organization. Hiring even one (1) employee not falling within this exemption would require you to obtain coverage. If such changes occur, you must either submit another request for exemption or obtain workers' compensation coverage. Failure to obtain the mandatory coverage can result in severe penalties such as an administrative fine up to $10,000, financial responsibility for benefits incurred for any accidents and losses during periods when you are not insured, and placement on the Employer Violator System that can result in revocation of your business license and any other licenses, permits or certificates required to do business in West Virginia. Further, be reminded that in accordance with W.Va. Code §61-3-24e(5), it is a felony to knowingly and willingly make false statements respecting any information required to be provided under the WV Workers' Compensation Act. Upon conviction, the individual shall be confined in a penitentiary for up to three years, fined up to $10,000, or both.

Please be advised that this exemption is advisory in nature and does not constitute any formal adjudication as to the workers' compensation status of your company. It is based solely on the information you provided to us in your application. If the information provided in the application is incorrect, then this exemption may also be erroneous. It is important for anyone relying on this exemption to be aware of this. This letter does not serve in lieu of a certificate of coverage in order to allow a prime contractor to avoid liability for employees of subcontractors under W. Va. Code § 23-2-1d.

Should you find that you are in need of workers compensation coverage, you may apply for coverage from one of the approved carriers of workers compensation. A list of these carriers can be found on our website at www.wvinsurance.gov underneath the box entitled Workers Compensation found in the center of the page. If you are unable to access the website for a list of these carriers, please feel free to contact our offices at (304) 558-6279.

Sincerely,

Gregory L. Hughes
