PURCHASING AFFIDAVIT

CONSTRUCTION CONTRACTS: Under W. Va. Code § 5-22-1(i), the contracting public entity shall not award a construction contract to any bidder that is known to be in default on any monetary obligation owed to the state or a political subdivision of the state, including, but not limited to, obligations related to payroll taxes, property taxes, sales and use taxes, fire service fees, or other fines or fees.

ALL CONTRACTS: Under W. Va. Code §5A-3-10a, no contract or renewal of any contract may be awarded by the state or any of its political subdivisions to any vendor or prospective vendor when the vendor or prospective vendor or a related party to the vendor or prospective vendor is a debtor and: (1) the debt owed is an amount greater than one thousand dollars in the aggregate; or (2) the debtor is in employer default.

EXCEPTION: The prohibition listed above does not apply where a vendor has contested any tax administered pursuant to chapter eleven of the W. Va. Code, workers' compensation premium, permit fee or environmental fee or assessment and the matter has not become final or where the vendor has entered into a payment plan or agreement and the vendor is not in default of any of the provisions of such plan or agreement.

DEFINITIONS:

"Debt" means any assessment, premium, penalty, fine, tax or other amount of money owed to the state or any of its political subdivisions because of a judgment, fine, permit violation, license assessment, defaulted workers' compensation premium, penalty or other assessment presently delinquent or due and required to be paid to the state or any of its political subdivisions, including any interest or additional penalties accrued thereon.

"Employer default" means having an outstanding balance or liability to the old fund or to the uninsured employers' fund or being in policy default, as defined in W. Va. Code § 23-2c-2, failure to maintain mandatory workers' compensation coverage, or failure to fully meet its obligations as a workers' compensation self-insured employer. An employer is not in employer default if it has entered into a repayment agreement with the Insurance Commissioner and remains in compliance with the obligations under the repayment agreement.

"Related party" means a party, whether an individual, corporation, partnership, association, limited liability company or any other form or business association or other entity whatsoever, related to any vendor by blood, marriage, ownership or contract through which the party has a relationship of ownership or other interest with the vendor so that the party will actually or by effect receive or control a portion of the benefit, profit or other consideration from performance of a vendor contract with the party receiving an amount that meets or exceeds five percent of the total contract amount.

AFFIRMATION: By signing this form, the vendor's authorized signer affirms and acknowledges under penalty of law for false swearing (W. Va. Code §61-5-3) that: (1) for construction contracts, the vendor is not in default on any monetary obligation owed to the state or a political subdivision of the state, and (2) for all other contracts, that neither vendor nor any related party owe a debt as defined above and that neither vendor nor any related party are in employer default as defined above, unless the debt or employer default is permitted under the exception above.

KEY COMPETENCIES

Research Skills and Field Work

As an intern at the Department of the Interior in the Office of the Historic American Landscape Survey and Historic American Building Survey (HABS/HALS) in Washington, DC, I was a member of team research projects, field work and documentation projects ranging from buildings to broader GIS landscape projects. As the author of individual HABS/HALS reports of the Civil War Defenses of Washington, I mastered the Section 106 and 110 processes and authored pieces of research that are part of the HABS collection of the Library of Congress. As team leader I was responsible for over four teams documenting projects across the United States.

As an undergraduate at Savannah College of Art and Design, I authored primary research on Eleanor, West Virginia, a forgotten New Deal Utopian town created as a 'pet project' by Eleanor Roosevelt. My research led to the creation of an archives in the West Virginia Division of History and Culture, Academic journal publications and feature pieces in: The Savannah Symposium, a journal by the Savannah College of Art and Design, ARIS, the journal of the South Eastern Society of Architectural Historians, and the publication of my BA Thesis, Eleanor's Eleanor: the story of a Planned New Deal Utopia.

Documentation and Information Management

As a member of the creation committee of the Society of Architectural Historian's Archipedia Online Digital Archival Encyclopedia, I was in charge of documenting and gathering information for five US states and all entries of those states onto the first digital architectural encyclopedia database.

Created a group newsletter, and was solely responsible for drafting a new constitution and bylaws for Preservation Piedmont, a Preservation organization that serves over five counties in Virginia's Piedmont.

Co-Authoring a federal grant for the preservation and documentation of Rosenwald Schools across the states of Virginia, Tennessee, Kentucky, and Ohio.

Communications, Publications, and Public Relations

As an Associate at Red Real Estate, My communication and Public Speaking skills were vital in the successful transfer of Real Property in fiduciary representation of clients between buyers and sellers.

As the recipient of the Charles E. Peterson Fellowship—awarded by the Philadelphia Athenaeum—I was awarded a coauthorship of the Buildings of the US Series: Mississippi Edition, I was responsible for extensive travel and documentation of several Historic Preservation and cultural sites across the state of Mississippi.

As Senior Preservation Productions Coordinator for Renaissance Development in Washington, DC, I am the supervisor of the authorship of grants, contracts, and project proposals for all productions and preservation for a private historic preservation firm working in the heart of Capitol Hill.

As a museum educator with the Montpelier Foundation, was responsible for the successful coordination of fieldtrips and group tours to the Museum; organized schedules, coordinated the curriculum for the group's day, and communicated with teachers, students, and parents.
