He will lead our Program Management Team consisting of Director of Business Operations and Recruitment, Credentialing Coordinator, and Invoicing and Billing Manager. Our Executive Support Team will ensure that our Program Management Team has the required resources to ensure seamless delivery of services for the WVNF. Our Project Management team will continue to receive support from additional billing, administrative staff, internal clinical supervisors, and other applicable support staff, locally as well as from our headquarters in Columbia, MD. Program Management Team Chart is below.

WVNF's program will continue to be serviced by our local office in Charleston, WV. This office will be supported by our Regional Recruitment Delivery Hub, located in Charleston. The WVNF will have access to our Program Management team on a 24/7 basis, including holidays, throughout the term of the contract. The WVNF's dedicated Program Manager and their designated back-up will be directly responsible for managing our response to your needs and addressing any service questions the WVNF may have regarding this project.

Customized reports can be provided as part of these services.

Any healthcare professionals we assign to WVNF facilities will undergo annual training and performance monitoring from both a clinical and operations perspective. Our Program Management team will establish a schedule of onsite visits and virtual meetings for regular scheduled feedback from WVNF management to confirm we are providing services to the quality level expectations set in the contract deliverables. The key responsibilities of our Project management Team are as follows:

Amalgis' Project Management Responsibilities
Leadership and Coordination	Direct and resource all implementation, transition, and contract tasks. Coordinate resources between the Program Management Office, recruitment hubs, and headquarters.
Performance and Compliance Monitoring	Ensure program and contract performance, maintaining compliance with schedules, budgets, and deliverables. Monitor contract performance and meet accountability and performance measures.
Communication and Reporting	Maintain regular communication with the WVNF, providing updates and reports. Ensure Amalgis Candidate Information is accurate and timely.

Problem Resolution	Identify and resolve issues proactively. Streamline administrative processes and manage staff performance.
Customization and Flexibility	Customize work plans for each customer, detailing staffing plans. Remain engaged and responsive to ensure client satisfaction and compliance.
Strategic Planning	Establish long-term strategic goals and monitor market trends. Provide real-time rate analysis and react quickly to changes.
Recruitment and Credentialing	A dedicated recruitment manager will leverage resources to address staffing challenges. Ensure hiring deadlines are met and compliance is maintained.
Billing and Invoicing	Implement a simplified billing process with electronic timekeeping. Ensure invoice accuracy and timely processing by confirming timecard with WVVNF before submitting final invoice.

As an incumbent provider of temporary nursing and related staffing services to the WVVNF, we have established best practices to ensure the highest quality of service provision to the WVVNF, while ensuring retention of our temporary staff.

Key Differentiators of Amergis' Project Management for WVVNF
Walk ins	Recruiters' walk-in our candidates for their first shift with the WVVNF facilities. If their shift begins early, our Recruiters meet our staff at the end of their shift. This allows us to ensure that our employees are content with the position and answer any questions they may have, while maintaining open communication with them.
Weekly Touch Points	Our Program Manager sets up a weekly cadence of communication with the WVVNF's POCs. This includes involving members from our program team and corporate departments if required.
Tracking Goals and Metrics	Our Executive Leadership oversees the Program Manager to ensure that our teams are tracking and meeting recruitment metrics and candidate submittal goals.
Continuous Recruitment	We continuously create a pipeline of candidates who have been pre-vetted and aligned with the WVVNF's requirements. These are candidates who can be presented to the Charleston for backfills or new positions.
Monitoring Starts	Our Program Manager will work with our Recruiters to ensure that we meet our metrics on timely start dates. This means setting up and monitoring our credentialing and background check workflows to allow our Credentialing Coordinators the time they need to clear candidates for the WVVNF. During our weekly touch points, we will work with individual facilities to update the facility on each individual candidate and where they stand with meeting their anticipated start date.
Executive Leadership Touchpoints	Amergis' Executive Leadership, along with our Program Manager will conduct a Quarterly Business Review (QBR) meeting with the WVVNF every 90 days. This allows us to be strong consultative partners for the WVVNF and its facilities.
Technology Platforms	The WVVNF will continue to work with Amergis through our proprietary technology platform – MaxView. This platform streamlines the workflow between the WVVNF and Amergis, from posting a new position, managing credentials and onboarding, to closing out a position. It also handles Purchase Orders and tracks and records all activities conducted by Amergis for the WVVNF.

Surveys	update our processes to meet our clients and our professionals' needs.
Supporting Subcontracting Goals	Amergis has thoroughly vetted our subcontracting partners and has established processes in place to track, monitor, and report our subcontracting goals to the state.

Amergis is dedicated to maintaining high standards of service and support for WVNF, ensuring that all staffing needs are met with efficiency and professionalism. All open requisitions submitted to Amergis by the WVNF will be responded to by the deadline stated in the request.

Communication and Feedback

To ensure the needs of the WVNF are being met throughout the duration of this contract, Amergis offers several communication options that can be tailored, dependent upon WVNF needs.

Regularly Scheduled Check In: Jared Nelson, your main point of contact, will conduct daily, weekly, and monthly check-ins with WVNF's appointed personnel through the duration of the contract. These check-ins will ensure that we are able to provide candidates for open positions, understand where our candidates are in the selection process, how our staff perform onsite, and address any concerns proactively. We strongly believe that a consistent and transparent communication approach will allow Amergis to be a strong staffing partner for WVNF. Jared will provide feedback in a timely manner, which will reduce candidate drop-off rates during the recruitment process.

Quarterly Business Reviews: Amergis can provide the necessary management oversight of our employees and improve our program management for WVNF. For this, we propose Quarterly Business Review meetings. Such a review presents WVNF and Amergis with an opportunity to discuss program performance, fill-rates, and WVNF's satisfaction with our overall program services. Additionally, during such meetings, we will address employee performance and WVNF's or employee's grievances. These conversations will help us understand and improve our processes as well as anticipate your needs. Meetings may be held in person or via teleconference.

Annual Staff Review: Based on metrics collected through the year, Amergis' Program Manager will meet with WVNF's POC to review the potential changes in the program staffing levels. This gives both WVNF and Amergis the opportunity to address any grievances of WVNF, as well as discuss how to improve our processes to better meet WVNF's needs. To further ensure proper communication throughout the duration of this contract, our Program Management Team will assess the needs of WVNF and create a customized communication schedule for our representatives to meet and discuss how Amergis can best serve WVNF. Beyond the communication methods mentioned above and below, Amergis may also provide weekly, monthly, or quarterly communications depending on the preferences of WVNF.

Surveys and Performance Measurement: Our Program Management team will conduct formal and informal surveys, upon the WVNF's approval, to obtain performance feedback from patients, customer personnel and caregivers, to ensure our services and all participant stakeholders' experience are satisfactory. We will also monitor several Key Performance Indicators (KPIs) from an administrative standpoint which is customized for each project, such as response times to staffing requests, fill ratios, missed shifts, personnel retention rates and other KPI's specific to your project. We will be in constant and regular communication with WVNF's representatives to review the ongoing status of this project, through scheduled progress meetings, performance reviews and delivery of reports customized to meet your needs.

Internal Auditing: To better serve you and your patients, not only do we manage quality from a clinical perspective, but we also provide internal audits on our administrative and business functions, such as payroll/human resources and compliance issues and other areas, as it relates to upholding standards of our services. This management process is part of our Quality Assurance and Improvement practices as we partner with your organization to achieve your program objectives.

Clinical Infrastructure: Amergis incorporates the use of our Clinical Infrastructure of advisors that assist each of our 70 plus offices nationwide on clinical matters and provider performance, as well as providing our staff with initial and annual competency testing, to further safeguard high standards of healthcare delivery and ensure the continued delivery of quality care. With our focus on the patient, customer and provider experience, we combined these practices with continuous feedback from all stakeholders in a wide variety of communications.

Upon request, Amergis will provide current staffing rosters, contact information, personnel file updates, credentialing records, and other staffing reports required by the Facility. Personnel records will be reviewed and updated annually and made available to the Facility upon request.

Reporting

We utilize MaxView to provide clients with access to real-time reporting that offers insight into current spending and other trends. Additional information, such as fill ratio and time to fill, is available quarterly. Amergis will also provide reports requested by the Agency and/or Purchasing Division, including quantities purchased, agencies utilizing the contract, total contract expenditures by agency, and other requested contract data. These reports support informed staffing and contract-management decisions.

STAFFING/SHIFT COVERAGE PLAN

With approximately 9 staffing recruitment specialists, Amergis will maintain a continuously recruited pool of qualified RNs, LPNs, and HSWs available for hourly, daily, weekly, monthly, annual, and PRN assignments. Our Program Manager will coordinate requested coverage with dedicated recruiters and credentialing personnel, monitor open shifts and anticipated absences, and maintain qualified backup staff for weekends, holidays, vacations, call-offs, and emergency requests. Amergis will respond to each request by the deadline established by the Facility and will make every possible effort to replace a staff member who calls off. Amergis will confirm the required number of staff no later than two hours before the applicable shift or assignment begins.

We currently have a pipeline of over 345,000 healthcare professionals for WVNF's program. The table below presents our pipeline numbers for each modality.

Modality	Local Pipeline	Regional Pipeline	National Pipeline
Registered Nurse (RN)	317	6,648	25,388
Licensed Practical Nurse (LPN)	1,119	13,803	45,528
Health Service Worker (HSW)	3,161	33,055	217,543

In the event of a declared pandemic or similar public health emergency, Amergis will comply with Facility directives regarding assignment restrictions and will take reasonable steps to ensure personnel do not work in multiple healthcare facilities when such restrictions are required by the Facility or applicable governmental authorities.

Backfill Contingencies

Amergis employees are available 24/7 to address any unforeseen vacancies (such as callouts) that may occur at WVNF facilities. By anticipating shortages and addressing them early, we ensure consistent coverage across all client facilities and minimize the risk of last-minute shift vacancies.

In the event of a callout, we contact active staff to fill the available shifts, allowing staff to pick up those shifts quickly. Our proactive pipelining strategy continuously builds and maintains a pool of qualified, credentialed healthcare professionals, enabling us to deploy candidates immediately when unexpected vacancies arise. Every callout and corresponding replacement are promptly communicated to the facility for approval.

Our MaxView shift scheduler platform empowers WVNF to efficiently share open shifts, monitor staffing levels, and forecast potential shortages in real time. When combined with our recruiter-driven candidate pipeline, this integrated approach enables us to respond quickly and effectively to staffing needs, ensuring that backfill contingencies are handled seamlessly and without disruption.

RECRUITING AND SCREENING APPROACH

Amergis employs a comprehensive staff delivery process that enables us to quickly provide WVNF with screened candidates who match both your skill and cultural requirements. Instead of relying on a stack of resumes, we use an integrated and multi-channel strategy to build lasting relationships with healthcare professionals and pinpoint the candidates best suited to WVNF positions.

Leveraging a proprietary applicant tracking system, RecruitCare, with a database of over 3.3 million pre-screened candidates, along with a client-accessible staff management platform, MaxView, Amergis offers WVNF full transparency into the candidate lifecycle, from initial application to contract completion, instilling confidence in their staffing partnership. Details of the core steps of our staffing process follow.

Source

The first step in Amergis' recruiting process is sourcing qualified healthcare professionals for WVNF assignments. We begin by evaluating the Facility's technical and cultural requirements, including licensure, certifications, competencies, work environment, and candidate fit. Using this information, our recruiters develop a targeted sourcing strategy and first leverage Amergis' extensive applicant tracking system to identify pre-screened candidates who can be deployed quickly as staffing needs arise.

For WVNF, Amergis will implement a focused recruitment strategy for RNs, LPNs, and HSWs throughout Clarksburg and the surrounding West Virginia labor market. Dedicated recruiters will utilize our internal candidate database, professional referrals, targeted advertising, social media outreach, job boards, local networking, and relationships with healthcare and community organizations to identify qualified candidates.

Recruiters are deeply connected to the local community and actively cultivate referral networks to expand the available talent pool.

Recruitment activity will be continuously monitored through regular pipeline reviews, daily recruiter check-ins, and weekly one-on-one meetings with the Program Management Team. Sourcing resources will be adjusted based on open shifts, anticipated vacancies, candidate availability, and Facility priorities. When additional support is needed, Amergis will leverage its regional and national recruiting resources to ensure a consistent pipeline of qualified professionals for WVVNF.

Screen

When our recruiters first approach an interested candidate, we screen to establish the initial viability of the candidate for that position. Your Program Manager will work with WVVNF facilities to understand each facility's unique needs and customize our recruitment and screening requirements to meet those needs. Our screening process is built to allow for customization based on each client's requirements. For WVVNF we will include the following screening criteria in our process.

The following table provides all items candidates are screened for:

Screening	Source
General Screening	Completed Application/Interview Professional Reference Check 12 Panel Drug Test
Professional Screening	Licensure/Certifications and Professional Credentialing Competency and Skills Test
Background Investigation	Global Employee Search in Amergis' ATS License Verification National Practitioner's Databank Fingerprint Checks (as required) WV Cares
Criminal Background Check	County and State Criminal Background Report WVCARES Eligibility Verification
Exclusion Screening	OIG/LEIE GSA/EPLS National Sex Offender Public Registry (NSOPR)
State Exclusion Search	West Virginia Department for Medicaid Services Exclusion Search
Medical Screening	Medical history and immunization records Titers for Rubella, Rubeola (Measles), Mumps and Varicella Titers for Hepatitis B T-Dap Influenza vaccine (during flu season) Two-Step TB Screening Process Any lab work as recommended by the physician

In addition to the background screening, Amergis candidates complete a basic skills and competency questionnaire based on the position description – to establish if they meet the position requirements.

Submission to WVVNF

Candidates must have successfully completed the screening process to be considered for WVVNF position(s). At the end of this screening process, the Recruiter creates a unique Candidate Submission Profile, matching the candidate to the open position. This step is necessary to ensure we are meeting position needs by submitting fully qualified candidates according to the position description. For clinical positions, the Program Management Team will conduct a Quality Assurance Review of each candidate before they are moved forward to clinical interviews. As presented in the table below, minimally our Candidate Submission Profile will include the following:

Cover Page with candidate details	Employment application or resume with references
EEO	Twelve-panel drug screening results
License verification(s) and certification records	Current CPR certification
WVCARES background clearance	Executed confidentiality agreement
WV Food Handlers Card	Physical examinations/immunization records

Amergis will provide all required personnel documentation to the Facility and obtain Facility approval prior to scheduling any professional for orientation or assignment.

Orient

We provide orientation for new healthcare professionals during their initial stages of employment. Orientation is tailored per profession and geared towards familiarizing employees with WVVNF-specific information as well as Amergis' policies and procedures. Employees must complete orientation to be eligible for assignment. We aim to prepare our employees for their assignment so they can be productive from day one. Before starting work, we review the specific information about the assignment such as directions, parking, dress code, expectations, attendance/call-offs and administrative items. When feasible, our assigned recruiter(s) or local office manager will walk the employee onto the job site on the first day. Following the employee's first day, we follow up with the employee to answer any questions, address any potential changes, and confirm commitment to the assignment.

Amergis will ensure all personnel complete Facility-required training, and competency assessments prior to independent assignment. Point Click Care (PCC) and Alzheimer's training will be included as required by the Facility, including initial and annual recertification requirements.

Service

Our job does not end once we make a placement. We remain engaged with our employees throughout the assignment, checking in to make certain they are satisfied with their assignment and to address and correct any issues in real time. We have a regular schedule to check in with WVVNF to ensure that our service exceeds expectations. We also take this time to verify that the assignment is going smoothly and help plan for any upcoming personnel scheduling needs.

Amergis will also continually recruit for the required healthcare designations to ensure our services are delivered promptly and WVNF's positions are consistently filled. Our overall approach is to create and maintain a pool of candidates who are ready for assignment and placement within WVNF facilities in order to fulfill expressed contract requirements.

Clinical Staff Qualifications and Responsibilities

Amergis is submitting qualified personnel for all three required disciplines: Registered Nurses (RN), Licensed Practical Nurses (LPN), and Health Service Workers (HSW). Assigned personnel will possess all licenses, certifications, registrations, and qualifications required by the State of West Virginia and the Facility and will perform the full scope of responsibilities including:

RN

Clinical oversight, resident assessment and care planning, medication administration, documentation, interdisciplinary collaboration, emergency response, and compliance with Facility policies and regulatory requirements.

LPN

Direct patient care, treatments, medication administration, clinical documentation, resident clinical data collection and reporting, care coordination, activities of daily living support, interdisciplinary collaboration, and compliance with Facility policies, professional standards, and applicable state and federal regulations.

HSW

Assistance with activities of daily living, resident safety and comfort, meal service support, documentation, and compliance with Facility policies, professional standards, and applicable state and federal requirements.

BILLING AND INVOICING PROCESS

Amergis delivers simple, accurate, and transparent invoicing to ensure fast review, minimal errors, and timely payment for WVNF. Our quality assurance controls protect billing integrity and give your team confidence in every invoice. The Program Management team manages time capture and reporting, while Amergis corporate headquarters processes payments to ensure clear accountability from start to finish.

Amergis follows a structured, multi-step process to deliver accurate invoices on schedule:

- ▶ Contracted personnel clock in and out using an electronic timekeeping system.
- ▶ Amergis' Program Management team consolidates time data weekly and prepares a billing report.
- ▶ Amergis submits the billing report to WVNF to review.
- ▶ An Amergis billing representative resolves discrepancies directly with WVNF.
- ▶ Amergis issues a revised billing report reflecting agreed-upon corrections.
- ▶ WVNF reviews the final billing report and submits payment.
- ▶ At least two Amergis employees review every invoice for accuracy before submission.

Each invoice clearly itemizes the client name, unit, date of service, shift, class type, employee name, hours worked, and bill rate. Amergis also customizes invoices to meet client-specific requirements and provides aggregate billing reports on request to support audits and contract oversight.

Amergis will comply with Facility-established procedures regarding timesheet submission, payroll reporting, missing punch documentation, and invoicing schedules. Amergis acknowledges the Facility's timekeeping requirements and will coordinate with assigned personnel to ensure timely and accurate submission of all required payroll documentation.

When the billing team identifies an error, they correct it immediately in the billing system and apply the adjustment to the next invoice. Amergis invoices operate on net 30 terms. Electronic funds transfer (EFT) is the preferred payment method; PCard/credit card payments are accepted and subject to a 4% surcharge.

EXCEPTIONS

Pricing (Provision 13): Amergis requests the ability to negotiate reasonable pricing adjustments at renewal periods to account for unforeseen market conditions, labor market changes, regulatory requirements, or other factors that materially affect the cost of service delivery. If pricing must remain fixed through all renewal terms, Amergis requests the option to decline renewal at the end of any contract term.
