VI. AWARD: The award will be a single award per Region/District (1 through 10). Pricing will be from the source fuel was pulled from (terminal location). The Biodiesel B5 product quotes will not be a factor in the award process. The winning bidder for any (T/W) region will also be awarded the B5 Biodiesel product if quoted.

VII. PAYMENT: Shall be made based on the terminal fuel is pulled from. If vendors bid multiple terminal sources, the invoice will be based on the lowest price, or vendor shall provide proof of terminal product is pulled from on the invoice.

State agencies also currently pay 20.50/cents per gallon for the flat rate component of the West Virginia Excise Tax. In addition, state agencies are responsible for the Federal L.U.S.T. Fee which is assessed at 0.001/cents per gallon. No other fuel taxes or fees shall be charged to state agencies.

Guy –

Please do change orders to both FUELTT and FUELTT. You can use this email in place of a WV-35.

The FUELTT change order should read something like: To increase the variable rate component of the motor fuel excise tax from 11.7/cents per gallon to 12.9/cents per gallon.

We'll have to look at FUELTT, but it would likely read: To clarify that the variable rate component of the motor fuel excise tax is 12.9/cents per gallon.

Both will have an effective date of 01/01/2012.

Thanks,
Mike

Good morning, Mike.

I did confirm that the January 1, 2012 "variable component" portion of the West Virginia Motor Fuel Excise Tax increase is one of the taxes that state agencies are responsible for paying. Not sure why the FUELTT 12 Contract does not have the same (as the FUELTT 12) discussion of taxes shown below in your earlier response to my inquiry. That portion of both fuel contracts should be the same. The (FUELTT 12, Part VIII) discussion of taxes states: "West Virginia State agencies currently pay a variable rate component of the motor fuel excise tax on motor fuel sold or used of 11.7 cents per gallon". The 11.7 cents per gallon reference should now be revised to 12.9 cents per gallon.

Thanks, and have a great day.

Hey, Jim –

Happy Holidays!

Am not familiar with the new fuel taxes that he mentions or how they are classified (Consumer Sales Tax, State Excise Tax, etc.). I've copied the "Taxes" section from FUELTT12 below.

Best,
Mike

I assume this will affect the Statewide Fuel Contract. Let me know your thoughts, please. I am out of the office; however, I am reading my e-mails. Thanks.
