DIRECTOR'S NOTES

Hello, and welcome to the 2025 edition of the Procurement Profiles directory!

We all share the same goal — to procure goods and services for the State of West Virginia in a cost-effective, efficient, and ethical way. You are the heart of the state purchasing process, and your hard work and dedication make a real difference every day.

This latest edition of the directory is designed to help you connect with fellow state buyers and our Purchasing Division staff in a way that's both useful and fun. Have a question about a delegated purchase? Reach out to one of your experienced peers! Need help with a central purchase? Your assigned Purchasing Division buyer is just a call or email away.

Thank you for everything you do to support our mission and serve the citizens of West Virginia. We hope you enjoy this publication and find it helpful throughout the year!

AGENCY

West Virginia Bureau for Behavioral Health

TIME IN PUBLIC PROCUREMENT

5 years

What past period of your life do you often daydream about?

I wouldn't say I often daydream about it, but I sometimes miss being a kid. I didn't feel that way when I was a child, but now I realize how easy things were for me as a child. I didn't have to worry about things like car payments and house payments. I just had to go to school, do well, and play. I could definitely do all that again.

What do you plan to do in retirement?

I plan to spend time with my family and especially my husband. I would definitely enjoy a little traveling as well.

Imagine we're planning a cross country road trip.

Where do you suggest we stop along the way?

Definitely Nashville, Wichita, Colorado Springs, Houston,

Las Vegas and San Francisco. Those are a few places I would enjoy seeing either again or for the first time.

What's a fact most people don't know about you?

One fact that most people don't know about me is my work as a USA Boxing volunteer and that I have been involved for almost 10 years. I am a Level III Official and I have worked national tournaments in Wichita, Albuquerque, and most recently Las Vegas. I am currently the Chief of Officials, Registration Chair and Treasurer for the state of West Virginia's Local Boxing Committee.

If you could have dinner with anyone, living or deceased, who would it be and why?

If I could have dinner with anyone, it would have to be Elvis Presley. I have always been a huge fan.

Las Vegas!

What's a fact most people don't know about you?

I can't answer this - because then they would know it! :)

If you could have dinner with anyone, living or deceased, who would it be and why?

Edward Leedskalnin. Back in the 1920s, he invented a way to move enormous stones without modern machinery just like what was used on the pyramids to build Coral Castle. No one knows how he was able to do this.

What past period of your life do you often daydream about?

Probably my early 20s, when I thought energy drinks and confidence could solve anything. I had no money, but somehow always had enough for bad decisions.

What do you plan to do in retirement?

My plan is to sit on my porch, judge people's lawn care, and tell kids wild stories that start with "Back in my day..." Also, naps. Lots of naps. Maybe travel.

Imagine we're planning a cross country road trip.

Where do you suggest we stop along the way?

Superstition Mountains

What's a fact most people don't know about you?

Most people don't know I collect coins—some of them are really old and have amazing stories behind them.

If you could have dinner with anyone, living or deceased, who would it be and why?

I'd have dinner with Shaquille O'Neal. The guy's hilarious, and generous. He'd probably pay for it.
