RE: WVA bid # 708EC006

The bid submitted here by K&K Systems meets all specifications called for in this bid. However, some minor deviations can be found in our published literature. Therefore it is necessary to make it clear; the product being bid/offered by K&K Systems is exactly what is called for by WVADOT, K&K standard literature and specifications notwithstanding.

K&K Systems continually makes improvements in our design and standard product, therefore printed literature may not completely or accurately depict our product. Nonetheless, the literature items accompanying this bid is sufficiently accurate so to be able to correctly and truthfully describe the K&K product.

What the WVADOT has asked for is specifically what is intended by K&K Systems.

As we continue to improve our product the changes are automatically incorporated into our delivered product.. Should K&K Systems be the successful bidder, as part of the ensuing contract, K&K will offer the state of WVA this improved product.
(Note: there are such changes in process at this time.)
