Omni-WEB™ PACS

is a secure, powerful image management system for the distribution, visualization, processing and archiving of medical image data. All DICOM images can be utilized, including DR, CR, CT, MR, US, NM, Angiography, Cardiology, Endoscopy and Intra-oral. Video and audio broadcast are also supported. Omni-WEB™ PACS allows the transmission of medical images across the Internet or through a Local Area Network (LAN). Using only a standard PC and Web browser, patient images and data can be displayed anywhere Internet access is available. Annotations to the images are visible simultaneously for all participants. For security, Omni-WEB™ PACS has administrative-defined user access, a firewall and SSL-data encryption to guarantee critical patient data is handled safely.

Archiving – Images can be archived in their original format or in a “lossless” compressed mode to save space. Additional compression for specific images can be selected to increase transmission speed. Omni-WEB™ PACS archive is based on the reliability of modern RAID systems and is scalable from 500 GB to several terabytes. Data integrity is guaranteed through reliable checksum mechanisms and internal consistency checks. All archiving options can be traced in accordance with HIPAA.

Security – Omni-WEB™ PACS is built using sophisticated security features such as user authentication, secure data transmission through SSL encryption, access control via user groups and configurable user permissions. Security on Omni-WEB™ PACS is role-based and supports integrated Windows authentication, which allows access rights for specific user groups. For example, certain groups may view diagnosed images and reports while others may only view the images of their referred patients. In short, the system administrator can predefine access for user groups and individuals for every image, report and data set throughout the system.

Web-Based Clients for Image Distribution – Omni-WEB™ PACS clients use Microsoft Internet Explorer 6.0 and an integrated set of tools for efficient workflow-oriented viewing and reporting of medical images.

The Web-based architecture ensures all images are available immediately throughout the healthcare enterprise. Omni-WEB™ PACS supports all important DICOM modalities, color and grayscale monitors, and single and multi-frame images. Multiple options for image manipulation include zooming, panning, windowing, DICOM Query, Export and Print, search filters, quick zoom, magnifier, density profile, scout lines, Windows print, dual monitor support and report viewing.

Edge enhancement, grayscale inversion, measurement tools and ROI analysis facilitate the image workflow. Display protocols can be preconfigured for user groups or configured individually for each user.

Workflow – Omni-WEB™ PACS clients provide an intuitive and easy-to-learn user interface in 6 possible languages. In addition to roaming user profiles and display protocols, Omni-WEB™ PACS offers filtering options which can be set up quickly and easily for increased productivity. Users can create referral patient media (CD or DVD) which includes an integrated viewer. Omni-WEB™ PACS also offers an easy-to-use editor for creating and modifying reports. The system is easily integrated with hospital information systems via URL and HL7 interfaces and supports additional Diagnostic Viewers.

Remote Administration – Web-based remote administration saves valuable resources and time. All features can be securely accessed, including auto-report queries to RIS/HIS systems, modality performed procedure step functionality, auto-deletion of old data, archival and the creation of patient media.

OmniVue

For Radon Medical Imaging a Genesis Digital Imaging Dealer

OmniVue is a DICOM diagnostic viewing software for all digital imaging modalities. OmniVue is fully FDA compliant and DICOM compatible with DICOM Store, Query & Retrieve and Print functionality for easy networking with all modalities. A non-linear lookup table allows for outstanding image quality for CR and DR images. OmniVue features a full suite of the latest image processing tools and easy-to-use database management fields to streamline workflow for your practice.

EASY NETWORKING

OmniVue software is easily loaded onto a standard PC and will quickly be able to receive, send, print and email images to other locations. DICOM images can be sent from PACS systems or directly from any digital modality. OmniVue software features include:

- Receive DICOM images from multiple modalities using DICOM Storage SCP
- Send DICOM images to multiple destinations using DICOM Storage SCU
- Retrieve DICOM images from other modalities using DICOM Query & Retrieve

SEARCHABLE DATABASE

OmniVue's patient database is logically presented to help you find the information you need, quickly. Patient, study and series information is user-defined, and each category can be selected simply by clicking on the category name to prioritize by patient name, ID, date and all other DICOM fields. OmniVue database features include:

- Database search with multiple query conditions
- Merge exams and series
- Split exams and series
- Display worklist and viewer on two separate monitors

Study ID	Patient Name	Study Date	Study Time	Series	Modality

CUSTOMIZED WORKFLOW

OmniVue allows the user to customize the software interface with the features you demand for diagnosis. CT images can be automatically displayed in 2x2 or 4x4. DICOM header can be displayed anywhere on the image. OmniVue customized workflow features include:

- Customized toolbar
- Multiple hanging protocols
- Customize DICOM overlay display
- Pre-defined window/level & LUT presets

IMAGE MANIPULATION

OmniVue provides all the tools you require to effectively diagnose the image on your screen. The tools you use most often are also available by simply clicking the right mouse button while the image is displayed (Window/Level, Pan/Zoom, Stack/Tile View, Mag/True Size Image, Arrow/Annotation, etc.) The toolbar itself can be positioned in the vertical or horizontal planes to maximize landscape and portrait monitors. OmniVue advanced image manipulation tools include:

- Magnifying Glass - Real time sizing
- Annotation including measurement, compare, angle, ROI

Images can be sent simply by clicking the "Email" tool which will then automatically open your default email program and attach the image in your choice of 5 formats. The "Export" feature allows you to place images in other folders on your computer, or any other computer on the same network. "Import" images in other formats (such as JPG), add DICOM header information and display them as DICOM images. Omnivue features include:

- Email images in multiple formats: DICOM, JPG, BMP, TIF, J2K
- Export images to conference folders
- Import non-DICOM images, add patient information and display as DICOM images

Single and multiple patients can be selected from the database for archival in multiple image formats. Choose to add a "Mini-Viewer" application which opens automatically when the CD is inserted and allows image manipulation, paper printing and DICOM forwarding to another location. You have the option to view Report fields along with the images. Add a DICOM directory and create a DVD backup.

Omnivue CD & DVD archiving includes:

- Create CDs for referring physicians with a mini-viewer

IMAGE STITCHING

Omnivue allows disparate CR and DR images to be "stitched" together to create a single reference image. First, a patient with multiple images is selected. Second, individual images are selected in the order they are to be stitched, top to bottom. Third, images are automatically stitched together using predefined reference points. Finally, a single image is displayed along with manual tools that enable the user to manipulate the image right or left, up or down to provide a more precise alignment. Omnivue image stitching includes:

- Selection of individual image order
- Automatic creation of a single image
- Manual manipulation tools to provide a more precise visual reference

PRINTING

Omnivue works with DICOM-compliant film printers as well as non-DICOM paper printers to allow hardcopy display of images. Multiple DICOM printer destinations can be created for point-and-click printing across the network. You can choose to display DICOM header information, measurements and other annotations on the image. Image formatting is accomplished using hanging protocols (1x1, 2x2, 3x4, etc.) that can be defined for each Study, Series and Selected Image. There is also the option to print off of any standard paper printer. Omnivue printing includes:

- DICOM and paper printing to multiple destinations
- Display of DICOM headers, measurements and annotations
- Customizable hanging protocols for study, series and selected images (2x2, 3x4, etc.)
