Dear Ms. Wagner:

Enclosed you will find Orchid Cellmark's proposal for the upcoming Statewide Genetic Testing Services Contract with the West Virginia Department of Revenue, Solicitation No. CSE80627.

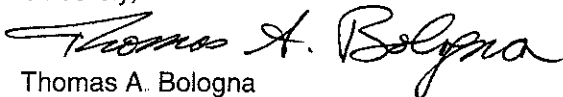

OCI has been involved in the paternity testing industry since 1979, and continues to incorporate new technologies, processes, and quality standards which enable us to pass this high level of service onto our customers. Process improvement and Quality Assurance are two of the main focuses at OCI, with dedicated teams putting time and resources together to ensure that OCI not only meets the requirement of its contracts and accrediting bodies, but also exceeds them. It is through these processes that OCI has been able to provide a 3.4 day average turnaround for genetic testing results throughout the calendar year 2007 for the State of West Virginia with zero (0) mis-reports.

In addition to technical aspects, OCI believes that customer service and communication are of great importance, and a major component of the success in a business relationship between two organizations. A dedicated customer service and scheduling coordinator, in addition to the Director of Customer Service and Director of Operations, work in conjunction with the state's child support offices and the Department of Health and Human Resources to ensure all needs are met or exceeded.

In recent years, the paternity testing industry has seen a downward trend in pricing, yet the content and quality of OCI's services have been elevated to a higher level. As is true for most businesses, our costs of operation – materials, labor, taxes, and overhead – have risen at a steady pace, which presents us with the constant challenge of finding innovative ways to lower our costs by means of increased productivity. Despite the confluence of lower prices and higher costs, we are confident that we will continue to be able to provide uncompromised levels of service to child support service organizations and the paternity industry as a whole.

We greatly value the opportunity to present this bid response. If we are able to secure this award, you can be assured that we will continue to bring high quality and efficiency to the Child Support Service Centers throughout the state of West Virginia.

Sincerely,

Thomas A. Bologna
President and Chief Executive Officer
