Reference: Expression of Interest
Erosion Control of Access Road
Center for National Response, Gallagher, WV

Dear Selection Committee:

Stantec Consulting Services (formerly R.D. Zande and Associates, Inc.) is pleased to submit this Expression of Interest on the above referenced project. As we will demonstrate in this submittal, Stantec has the necessary experienced personnel supported by the required resources to complete the needed work in a timely and cost effective manner.

Our personnel are experienced in slip repair and can perform all aspects of the project excluding the core drilling and geotechnical engineering, which we will utilize the services of Novel Geo-Environmental. We have previously worked with Novel on many projects and have a successful relationship with them. Our personnel will complete the surveying and mapping, prepare construction drawings, utility relocations (if necessary), roadway design, drainage design, erosion and sediment control, permit applications, bidding documents, contract administration and inspection services.

We appreciate the opportunity to offer our services, and look forward to hearing from you. If you have any questions, or require additional information, please feel free to contact me at your convenience.

Respectfully,

STANTEC CONSULTING SERVICES INC.
