PRINTING AND BINDING
FOR THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES OF THE
STATE OF WEST VIRGINIA
JULY 1, 2008 THROUGH JUNE 30, 2009
(PREPARED BY THE CLERK OF THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES)

Each bid proposal for legislative printing and binding must be accompanied by a bidder's bond, executed according to law, in the penal sum of fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000.00), and must be delivered to the Director of Purchasing, Department of Administration, at the time of submission of the bid; the said bidder's bond is to be conditioned upon the execution of proper bond in the full sum of the contract, in the event this bid proposal is accepted and the contract is awarded to the Printer upon the basis of this submitted bid proposal.

BID PROPOSAL FOR LEGISLATIVE PRINTING AND BINDING
FOR THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES OF THE
STATE OF WEST VIRGINIA
JULY 1, 2008 THROUGH JUNE 30, 2009

The undersigned Jerry S. Moore of The Chapman Printing Company

hereinafter called the "Printer", hereby proposes to perform the legislative printing and binding for the House of Delegates of the State of West Virginia in accordance with the hereinafter set forth specifications and rulings, for the period beginning July 1, 2008, and ending June 30, 2009, and thereafter, in event the option is exercised, for an additional one-year period beginning July 1, 2009, and ending June 30, 2010, at the "rate bid" hereinafter set forth for each item of work bid: Provided, That nothing contained in the awarded contract shall require, or shall be construed as requiring, the House of Delegates or any of its officers to purchase any or any given amount, or all of the printing and binding described herein. Further, nothing in this bid proposal or any contract awarded pursuant hereto shall impair the right and privilege of the Clerk of the House of Delegates, through the Director of Purchasing, Department of Administration, to make purchase of printing of any job amounting to less than two thousand dollars ($2,000.00), in the open market, in the manner prescribed by law.

OPTION

In the event this bid proposal is accepted and a contract is awarded pursuant hereto, the awarded contract may be renewed and extended for an additional period, beginning July 1, 2009, and ending June 30, 2010, upon request of the Clerk of the House of Delegates of West Virginia and the mutual consent of the Printer and the Director of Purchasing, Department of Administration of said State.

SPECIAL NOTICE

1. The estimates of required quantities herein given have been prepared from the best data obtainable, but such estimates are not guaranteed; the Printer may be required to furnish more or less or none of the items specified.

2. Bidders are cautioned against bidding low on certain items and high on others, with the expectation of making up on high items what may be lost on the low items. Bids unreasonably high on one item and unreasonably low on another will be regarded as "trick" bids and will not be considered. Any change, interlineation or alteration in this bid will render same null and void.

3. Each bidder under these specifications will be required to furnish with the bid a statement of the capacity of his plant for doing the work required under said bid, and no bid will be considered if not accompanied with said information. The bidder must be equipped to do the work, and have all machinery and supplies necessary.

4. Three things are hereby impressed upon bidders:

(a) The printing and binding must be well done;

(b) The printing and binding must be promptly done and promptly delivered;

(c) The bidder must have the capacity to meet the demands of the House of Delegates of the State of West Virginia for printing and binding.

5. As to the quality of printing and binding, attention is called to the "Rules on Printing" and "Rules on Binding" of the hereinafter set forth specifications and rulings. Bidders are cautioned that the Printer will be required to observe strictly the requirements of these specifications and rules. If any job falls below the requirements of first-class work, the Clerk of the House of Delegates need not accept the same and the Printer will be required to do the job again, at his own expense.

6. As to the promptness in doing printing and binding, attention is called to the provisions set forth in "General Provisions". Delays in picking up and returning copy and proofs and delays in printing and binding and delivery of same will not be tolerated. If the Printer should engage in printing for other persons, it is understood and agreed that the work to be performed for the House of Delegates shall always be given precedence.

RULES ON PRINTING

1. Legible and plain copy with full instructions will be furnished the Printer for every job of work; and the Printer shall promptly furnish a revised proof, reasonably free from typographical errors, of such work for inspection. Such proof will be promptly returned to the Printer with such corrections as are desired to be made, which corrections the Printer shall take care to make before printing the work; but if there be changes ordered in any job for the making of which the Printer will demand compensation, before making such changes the Printer shall have a requisition therefor. The Printer will be allowed reasonable compensation for any loss he may sustain by reason of the failure to return promptly to him such revised proof as aforesaid.

2. As to fractions, except as herein otherwise specifically provided:

(a) When the work ordered does not amount to 1,000 impressions of press work, 1,000 impressions may nevertheless be charged therefor.

(b) When folding only is required on a job and does not amount to 1,000 signatures, 1,000 signatures may nevertheless be charged therefor.

(c) When stitching only is required on a job and does not amount to 1,000 signatures, 1,000 signatures may nevertheless be charged therefor.

(d) When folding and stitching with wire is required on a job and does not amount to 1,000 signatures, 1,000 signatures may nevertheless be charged therefor.

(e) When folding and sewing with thread is required on a job and does not amount to 1,000 signatures, 1,000 signatures may nevertheless be charged therefor.

(f) In estimating the composition of all laws, Journals, public documents and pamphlets, every fraction of a page shall be counted or charged for, but no entire blank page shall be counted or charged for. Imprint page shall be counted as a blank page.

(g) In estimating press work, if any document is less than 8 ½ x 11 inches, the same shall be charged at the same rate as Item 14 under Press Work, covering blanks, circulars, etc.

(h) In estimating press work in book or pamphlet printing where cuts are printed on paper of different quality from that used in the main part of the book or pamphlet, each page so printed shall count as a full form.

These are all the fractions authorized to be charged for as a whole unit. When the press work is more than 1,000 impressions (except as in "g" above), no fractional part thereafter shall be charged as a whole.

3. When any work is done for the House of Delegates and the same is not covered by the contract of the Printer, the price charged therefor shall not be greater than the lowest rate charged any customer; and an affidavit appended to the bill therefor shall so state, and also state that the price is just and reasonable.

4. In cases of blanks or other printing requiring curved lines, or other "fancy" work, a reasonable price will be allowed for such extra work, based on the actual time required to perform such extra work.

5. All work shall be done in a first-class manner, free from typographical errors. The type must be of modern styles. Good ink shall be used, and the press work shall be first class.

6. The contract for printing is based on the use of black ink; but when work is ordered to be done in any ink costing substantially more than the said ink, reasonable compensation therefor will be made to the Printer.

7. Whenever time is charged for making changes in forms, etc., under Item 3, or otherwise, the actual time only shall be charged; and the Printer shall verify such statement by his affidavit.

8. In book and pamphlet work, when the page size does not exceed 6 x 9 inches, each form shall consist of eight pages, 19 x 25 inches press size, if possible. When page size is larger than 6 x 9 inches, each form shall consist of four pages, if the work will make that much; and such printing, when possible, shall be printed so as to make signatures of 16 pages (page size 6 x 9 inches), and signatures of eight pages (page size larger than 6 x 9 inches). One form will be allowed for printing pamphlet covers when printed on one side.

9. All bills and accounts for printing must be made as specified by the Director of Purchasing, Department of Administration; and the character, quantity, etc., shall be set forth. Each invoice, properly notarized, submitted for approval of the Director, must be accompanied with a sample of the completed job, with each part or page clearly marked as to the rate being charged. A copy of each invoice must be furnished to the Clerk of the House of Delegates for which such printing was done for the approval of the Clerk. Each invoice, when approved by the Director as correct and according to contract specifications, when approved by the Clerk of the House of Delegates, is to be paid from the Legislative Printing Fund upon requisition of the Clerk of the House of Delegates.

10. In estimating composition of blanks, pamphlets or books, it is the intent of the House of Delegates of West Virginia that composition referred to in this contract be charged for on a per page basis.

11. Whenever there are several blanks to be printed and the same are so nearly alike that it will be cheaper to change the forms thereof than to reset different forms or when the House of Delegates orders a bill printed which is a duplicate of one which the Senate has ordered printed by the Printer, if such should occur, the forms shall be changed and not entirely reset and the time actually occupied in making changes will be paid for at the rate bid for time work.

12. In all cases of printing, where the same form is to be printed on different kinds of paper or otherwise, so as not to require resetting of the type, only one charge shall be made for the composition. This rule shall apply also when a form is to be printed on different sheets or otherwise, and there are to be changes made merely in the headings, or in the endings, so that it is substantially the same form, but in these cases a charge may be made for the time consumed in making the changes, as provided for in the rate bid for time work.

13. Only one charge shall be made for the composition of all documents ordered to be printed by the House of Delegates and no charge or allowance shall be made for composition when extra or additional copies are ordered to be printed.

14. Blank spaces between sections or paragraphs of books and pamphlets will not be tolerated; but all the composition of such work shall be compact and no more space be made between sections and paragraphs, unless ordered, than required by the character of the work, demanded by the exigencies of the makeup, or required by the rules of good typography.

15. At the top of each page of the House of Delegates Journal there shall be printed the number of the page, the words "Journal of the House of Delegates" and the date, as shown in the Journals of the session of 1995.

16. On the first page of each House of Delegates bill, before the title, there shall be printed in brackets and in solid type, the date and by whom introduced, and such other memoranda as to proceedings in reference to the bill as the Clerk of the House of Delegates may furnish. At the top of every page of the bill there shall be printed the number of the page and the number of the bill.

17. For drying, pressing, trimming, or other necessary manipulation of labor required to be done by the Printer to make a complete and perfect job of printing, except such charges as are herein specified and bid for, no compensation shall be allowed the Printer.

18. Engraving and embossing are not included or covered by this contract.

19. If the entire cost of any job of printing computed at the contract rate does not amount to $5.00, that sum may nevertheless be charged as a minimum.

20. Union label shall not be charged as a part of the composition.

RULES ON FOLDING AND BINDING

1. Any work done by the Printer, but not covered by this contract or the law, shall be done at a price not greater than the lowest rates charged any customer; and an affidavit appended to the bill therefor shall so state.

2. All pamphlets and book binding is to be done in signatures of sixteen pages, unless the work shall not amount to that much, in which case any number of pages less than sixteen shall constitute a signature in binding except when the pages when trimmed shall be larger than 6 x 9 inches, in which case eight pages shall constitute a signature.

3. In estimating folding in book or pamphlet binding where separate printed pages are furnished to be inserted in the book or pamphlet, each page inserted shall count as a full signature.

4. For gathering, drying, pressing, trimming or any other necessary manipulation of labor required to be done by the binder to make a complete job of binding, except such charges as are herein specified and bid for, no compensation shall be allowed to the Printer.

5. All bills and accounts for binding must be made as specified by the Director of Purchasing, Department of Administration, and shall be fully itemized, free from technical abbreviations, and the character, quantity, etc., shall be set forth. Each invoice, properly notarized, submitted for approval of the Director, must be accompanied with a sample of each job. A copy of each invoice must be furnished to the Clerk of the House of Delegates. Each invoice, when approved by the Director as correct and according to contract specifications, is to be paid from the Legislative Printing Fund upon requisition of the Clerk of the House of Delegates.

6. If the entire cost of any job of binding under this contract, except padding or cutting, computed at the contract rates, does not amount to $5.00, that sum may nevertheless be charged as a minimum.

7. Punching required in pamphlet work, including bills and Journals of the House of Delegates, shall be charged for on the basis of two holes per signature.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

1. The importance of a prompt daily delivery service of the printing and binding provided for under this contract is impressed upon the Printer. It is imperative that the printing for the House of Delegates be done promptly and without unreasonable delay. Therefore, it is expressly understood and agreed that daily delivery and pick-up of copy and proofs shall be by no later than 9:00 a.m. or as further may be arranged by the Clerk of the House of Delegates and the Printer. It is further expressly understood and agreed that in the event the Printer fails, refuses or unreasonably delays delivery of items of printing or binding placed with the Printer for completion, or fails to furnish to the Clerk a monthly written inventory report of House paper stock, the Clerk of the House of Delegates for which such printing or binding is being done may transfer the work, or parts thereof, to other printing plants, or may relet the unfinished part of the contract, holding the Printer and his sureties liable for any damage or additional cost that may be incurred by the State. It is also expressly understood that during sessions of the Legislature, delivery of Journals, bills, calendars, electronic PDF files for the Chamber Automation System and other documents which are needed for the daily session shall be not less than two hours prior to the commencement of the scheduled session on that day's delivery, unless such delivery requirement be waived by the Clerk. The Printer is not to be held liable or responsible for any delays caused by failure to complete the work in the time specified by reason of delayed proofs, excessive corrections in copy, or other causes not within his control. It is expressly understood by the Printer that the provisions of this paragraph apply during the interim period as well as during legislative sessions.

2. It is hereby expressly understood by the Printer that when a discrepancy exists between an electronic version and a hard copy version of any text furnished to be printed, the hard copy version is always to be followed unless expressly otherwise directed by the Clerk of the House. In all cases when a difference between the electronic and the hard copy version exists, the responsibility shall be upon the Printer to notify the Clerk of such difference and to seek direction or clarification from him as to which text is to be printed. The Printer shall always seek direction from the Clerk, and should the Printer fail to follow such directive, the Clerk may refuse to pay for such printing.

3. In compiling proof for the Acts and the Journals of the House, the Printer shall furnish the same to the Clerk of the House without delay and in an orderly fashion, in such manner as is satisfactory to the Clerk.

4. It is also of utmost importance and expressly understood that, following sine die adjournment of any session of the Legislature, the Printer shall deliver enrolled bills to the Clerk, promptly and without delay, such delivery to be completed by not later than the third working day following receipt of copy by the Printer, such receipt either by electronic transmission or by paper hard copy, in the case of general laws, and the fourth day following adjournment, Sundays excepted, in the case of appropriation bills. This provision may be waived only by mutual agreement between the Printer and the Clerk. The Printer is not to be held liable or responsible for any delays caused by failure to complete the work in the time specified by reason of delayed proofs, excessive corrections in copy, or other causes not within his control.
5. The Journal of the House of Delegates for the sixtieth (60th) day of the session and the Journal of the final day of any Regular Session or extension thereof, or of any Extraordinary Session, shall be printed without delay and shall be delivered to the Clerk of the House within one week, including Saturdays and Sundays, from receipt by the Printer of the final corrected copy from the Clerk of the House. Failure by the Printer to deliver the aforementioned Journals in accordance with the foregoing provision shall incur a penalty of $500.00 for each calendar day of nondelivery by the Printer, such assessment to be paid by the Printer to the Clerk of the House or deducted by the Printer from the final cost of such Journals, as directed by the Clerk of the House.
6. The Printer shall deliver to the Clerk of the House the completed bound volumes of the Acts and Journals not more than forty-five (45) calendar days following approval of the final proof and written notice by the Clerk to proceed to print such bound volumes, or shall pay a penalty in the sum of $500.00 per day for each calendar day the Printer is in default of such delivery. For purposes of this General Provision, "final proof" means the last written page of corrected text, which has received the approval of the Clerk or his designee, and which is returned to the Printer for inclusion in the text of the bound volume or volumes. In no instance shall a dummy copy (also known as "Sherpa") of the volume or volumes be construed to be included in the definition of "final proof" as set forth herein. Such dummy ("Sherpa") copy may be furnished to the Clerk for his inspection, or shall be furnished to him upon demand.
7. The Printer is to receive the legislative paper stock for printing and binding, but in the delivery of printing paper and other printing supplies to be provided for use by the Printer, the Printer shall provide the method and be responsible for the delivery of such printing paper and printing supplies.
8. The Printer shall furnish storage space for the legislative paper stock fully covered by insurance with loss payable clause to the West Virginia House of Delegates.

9. The Printer shall keep a complete inventory of House paper stock, and a written report of such inventory shall be furnished to the Clerk of the House of Delegates at the end of each month, indicating thereon receipts of shipments and withdrawals during the month assigning the latter to the respective printing order. Failure of the Printer to furnish such written inventory report shall constitute a breach of this contract and the Clerk may, in his discretion, invoke the remedies set forth in Item 1, General Provisions.

10. No printing job shall be invoiced at a greater rate than the shortest method and cheapest price which can be figured under this contract.

11. In no case shall the Printer furnish stock on any printing job without first securing the written permission of the Clerk of the House of Delegates.

12. The Printer agrees to provide suitable space and facilities, subject to the approval of the Clerk of the House of Delegates, for use by House proofreaders at the Printer's place of business in the City of Charleston, such proofreaders to be hired and compensated by the Printer, and approved by the Clerk of the House of Delegates, or hired and compensated by the Clerk of the House of Delegates, at a rate of compensation as may be mutually agreed upon by the Printer and the Clerk of the House of Delegates, if Printer hires such proofreaders, to be reimbursed to the Printer by the House of Delegates, provided that such proofreaders shall be compensated at a minimum of four hours per day when called to proofread by the Printer. It is expressly understood that any proofreading which requires less than four hours is to be completed on the same day as assigned by the Printer. It is further understood that any proofreading which requires less than four hours is to be expressly approved by the Clerk of the House. All invoices for proofreading services must receive the prior approval of the Clerk of the House, and all actual charges billed for proofreading services must be approved by the Clerk of the House.

The Printer expressly recognizes that the House of Delegates is relying on timely performance by the Printer and will schedule legislative operations as mandated by constitutional law, statutory law and internal rules of the House of Delegates in reliance upon timely performance by the Printer. Accordingly, it is expressly understood by the Printer that any default with respect to delivery of goods or services in connection therewith in accordance with the directions of the Clerk of the House of Delegates which results in a delay in or a disruption of the operations of the House of Delegates will be deemed to substantially impair the value of the whole contract and such default shall constitute a breach of the whole contract.
