Publication 631 - Official Election Mail Graphic Guidelines and Logos

January 2008

The Official Election Mail logo is a unique registered trademark designed exclusively for inclusion in the design of Official Election Mail. The United States Postal Service created the logo in cooperation with the Joint Election Official Liaison Committee to help federal, state, and local government election officials carry out their responsibilities under the National Voter Registration Act of 1993. The logo design features an interpretation of the stars and stripes of the American flag, and the words "Official Election Mail," clearly visible over the designation - "Authorized by the U.S. Postal Service."

We intend for this guide to provide information regarding the proper usage of the Official Election Mail logo in accordance with Postal Service rules and regulations, and to ensure mail containing the logo can be processed in an efficient and cost-effective manner. Correct usage of the logo by election officials helps to ensure the intent and credibility of this symbol remain intact.

The Official Election Mail logo can be used on any mailpiece created by an election official that is mailed to or from a citizen of the United States for the purpose of participating in the voting process. This includes balloting materials, voter registration cards, absentee applications, polling place notifications, and voter reply mail. The logo can be used on all classes of mail and all processing categories however, it is not intended to upgrade service or substitute for postage.

When the Official Election Mail logo appears on a mailpiece, voters recognize the mail as important and distinct from partisan political mailings. Additionally, the logo serves to identify Official Election Mail for Postal Service workers and distinguish it from the thousands of other mailpieces that are processed daily.

Since this logo is a registered trademark, it is important for election officials to:

- Read and comply with the requirements for its use.
- Schedule a free consultation with a postal mailpiece design analyst to determine how to incorporate the logo into the design of Official Election Mail.

To find an analyst in your area, go online to pe.usps.gov. Click on Mailpiece Design, then, Mailpiece Design Analyst, then Mailpiece Design Analyst Lookup Tool.

Conditions of use:

The Postal Service grants a limited license to use the Official Election Mail logo only under the conditions set forth in 1 through 4 of this section. The Postal Service views any use of the logo inconsistent with these conditions as an infringement of its intellectual property rights.

1. This license is granted only to federal, state, and local voter registration and election officials. Use by any other person or entity is not approved or licensed and will be considered an infringement of the rights of the Postal Service.

2. The official election mail logo must be used only on official election mail, mailed under the authority of an election official. It may not be used on any partisan mailings.

3. The Postal Service reserves the right to obtain information regarding the scope of use, to seek the termination of all unauthorized uses, and to pursue all legal remedies available to it.

4. Use of the logo must conform strictly to the guidelines set forth in this guide. Placement of the logo on a mailpiece must not interfere with the postage area, address area, return address area, or barcode clear zone.

You can find more information about classes of mail, preparation requirements, rules, regulations and policies online at pe.usps.com.

Direct your questions on mailpiece design and placement of the Official Election Mail logo to a mailpiece design analyst. To find an analyst in your area, go to pe.usps.gov. Click on Mailpiece Design, then, Mailpiece Design Analyst, then Mailpiece Design Analyst Lookup Tool.
