Department/Agency: Education

Detailed Description of Project: Training and professional development on use of mCLASS:DIRECT® online reporting tools for those subscribing to mCLASS:DIBELS® is to be provided to district (county) Reading First reading mentor teachers. This training will enhance staff members' ability to utilize mCLASS:DIBELS® results, reports and data to better inform K-6 reading instruction.

Proposed Sole Source Vendor:
Wireless Generation, Inc.

Specific Eligibility Criteria:

- 1) ability to deliver online professional development at each individual school site simultaneously;
- 2) ability to deliver online professional development at each individual school site utilizing Wireless Generation software and hardware technology;
- 3) ability to meet the scheduling needs of the individual schools;
- 4) ability to collaborate with the state Reading First project director for delivery and timeliness of professional development; and
- 5) ability to deliver mCLASS: DIRECT® reporting tools commensurate with DIBELS Wireless Generation assessment grades K-6.

Specific Qualification Criteria:

Wireless Generation takes commonly used, paper-based early reading assessments that are used throughout PreK-Grade 6 and makes them easier to administer and more effective by moving them onto handheld devices that sync to the Web using Wireless Generation's proprietary patent-pending mCLASS system. Wireless Generation's mCLASS products are complete assessment solutions, from handheld-based administration to Web-based reporting, analysis, data management and instructional planning tools. The company offers training, IT products and help desk services to ensure successful implementation. Wireless Generation is the sole and exclusive worldwide source for its mCLASS:DIBELS® and mCLASS:DIRECT®.
