EBA324 Addendum No. 1

Question:

Will the end user be making all A/V cable connections to the equipment, if not we need a list of any decks, camera's, routers, or other equipment we need to interface into and make cables for, that is not reflected in the bid.

Response:

Yes, we will be making our own connections to our equipment (tape machines, etc.)

Question:

We understand that the end users are already Avid savvy, however do you want a short 2-3 hour overview of new Media Composer 5.0 features, and system layout?

Response:

No, we do not want a short 2-3 hour overview, simply because we did not include this in our original specs.
