CANLINE11A

- 1) Q. We will be representing 4 distributors that are submitting pricing for our liners on this bid for you. I would like to know if the samples that are needed would be sent directly to you stating of course for "All Distributors" or do the distributors need to present them individually with their pricing at the time of the bid opening?
  - A. Please note that the samples need to reflect what bidder is sending them in against their bid. They need to be identified as to the Bidder and RFQ number that they go along with.
- 2) Q. I found out today when I delivered my can liner bid and samples that the bid opening date had been changed until August 17th. Is there any way in the future that I would receive notice of the change orders. I was out of the office today and maybe notification was faxed to me today. I have not had a chance to read the bid again. Was there any changes other than opening date on the bid.
  - A. If you are a registered vendor you can go on to our website, at www.state.wv.us/admin/purchase, go to the Purchasing Bulletin, sign-in, click on the RFQ, and download any applicable addendums. If you are not a registered vendor, you can call the bid request line at (304) 558-2063, give them the RFQ number and request any applicable addendums that may have been issued. It is the vendor's responsibility to follow-up on any changes that may be applicable. We do however, send out to the vendors, that we are aware of, copies of the addendum and they are scanned and on-line immediately when the addendum is released.
- 3) Q. I see canline11a has been extended. Any particular reason? We have already submitted our bid. Can we get it back to rework it or do we need to submit a new bid?
  - A. It was extended due to technical issues. No, you can not get your bid back, if you need to make a revision to your bid, you need to send a new bid stating that it supersedes, the previous bid that you have submitted.
- 4) Q. I was inquiring about the can liner bid. Is it only one item on the bid? My manufacturer called me and told me it was 19 items on the bid. The bid only has one item on it. The small liners. Are there more items on it?
  - A. Please refer to page 10 of the RFQ, the cost sheet. There are 19 line items to be bid.
