Dear Secretary Ferguson:

I would like to confirm our recent agreement concerning use of the State Purchasing Card. It has come to my attention that the language inserted in the Statewide Contracts regarding acceptance of the P-Card as a payment mechanism refers to a $2,500 transaction limit. As you know, as a result of recent legislation, this limit no longer applies; therefore, I am requesting the transaction limit be removed from the current language.

I appreciate your help concerning this matter. If you have any questions or need additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Respectfully,
