

North American Industry Classification System (NAICS)

Using the following code listing, find the code that best describes your principal business or activity in West Virginia. If your business consists of more than one type of activity, enter the code that represents more than 50% of your business in the primary business class section and enter the code that best represents the balance of your activities in the secondary class section. For example: (A) If you only sell clothing at retail, enter 4481 in the primary section. (B) If you make both retail and wholesale sales of furniture and more than 50% of your sales are wholesale, enter 4232 in the primary class section and enter 4421 in the secondary class section. (C) If your business consists of manufacturing, contracting and retail you should use a percentage to determine your primary and secondary codes: 58% manufacturing, enter 3399 in the primary class section; 32% contracting, enter 2389 in the secondary class section.
