

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The Commission received a great deal of assistance throughout its deliberations. To all the interested citizens, members of the Bar, faculty of the College of Law, judicial officers, and other court personnel who participated in the public hearings, responded to surveys, joined in the focus group, wrote or otherwise provided information, we extend our appreciation.

We are indebted to Dr. Dan Straub of the National Center for State Courts who facilitated the meetings and assisted in the development of the conceptual framework and plan for our work.

Special thanks are due those who chaired the four subcommittees and the staff attorneys who assisted them.

D.C. Offutt, Access to Justice Subcommittee Chair
Keith Jones, Staff Attorney

Catherine Munster, Expedition and Timeliness Subcommittee Chair
Susan Perry, Staff Attorney

Elaine Harris, Equality, Fairness, and Integrity Subcommittee Chair
Julia Hurney, Staff Attorney

Tom Tinder, Independence and Accountability Subcommittee Chair
John Hedges, Staff Attorney

Finally, we extend our appreciation for the competent and diligent assistance of the staff of The Administrative Office of the Courts.

Ted Philyaw, Administrative Director

Mary Durkin, Deputy Director

Alison Chambers, Attorney and Commission Liaison

Pepper Bryan, Administrative Secretary

Pam McCracken, Administrative Assistant
